Ideal Candidates: Project Manager

Suggested Project Manager Qualities

In selecting an individual from your organization to fulfill the role of project manager, I recommend someone with many of the following:

One who...

- has good interpersonal skills
 - has good communication skills
 - is an active listener and asks questions to understand the problem statement
 - has good planning capabilities to minute details of the project
 - is able to conduct project meetings and host various events
 - is well organised in terms of project planning and approaches
 - is able to manage the available funds efficiently
 - has at least some amount of knowledge about the project beforehand, but this is not a must.
